

"Nachev Ltd. was established in 1991. Initially engaged in manufacture of disposable polystyrene . Over the years the organization builds expertise and specializes in the manufacture of plastic products for food and packaging.

Currently the Organization is working with polystyrene and PET and produce over 180 different types of packaging. The production base of the organization is located in the town of Botevgrad . The company's team consists of highly qualified specialists in their field .

On March 17, 2004 Nachev Ltd. is certified and operates under a system of quality management in accordance with ISO 9001:2000. On June 1, 2009 has been developed and implemented an integrated management system conforming to standards ISO 9001:2008 and OHSAS 18001:2007.

The market share of the Organization in this field is about 70% of total production in Bulgaria.

Customers of the organization is offering full service from idea to pack up its production and delivery.

"